Registration process for 1:1 Support in Burnaby's Day Camps

Each participant is eligible for up to 120 hours/4 weeks of 1:1 Support per year.

Our Access Services team is continuing to pilot a new registration process for 1:1 Support in day camps including summer camps.

With personalized 1:1 Support, campers can fully participate and enjoy our programs. Families will now register for the dates they want to attend and the Access Services team will contact you to determine a camp location. Children will be placed into camps based on support needs and availability.

Campers can also choose to register for camps and provide their own external support workers—please notify Access Services in advance of the start date if you are providing their own support services.

After registering, the Access Services team will contact you to determine the preferred camp locations and interests. Best efforts will be made to place children in requested camps based on availability and individual support needs.
